

RULES OF PARTICIPATION

1. The Regulations apply to the "Castle Nights: Midge Ure" event organized (hereinafter: "Event") at the Szymbark Castle, address Szymbark 20, near Łława by Progresja Music Zone sp. z o.o. in Warsaw. (hereinafter: Organizer).
2. Each participant of the Event is required to read these Regulations and information about the Event available on the www.castlenights.pl. By purchasing a ticket for The Event, you accept these Regulations. Persons entitled to participate in The Event free of charge (media passes, invitations, contests, non-ticketed events, etc.) are obliged to comply with the provisions of these Regulations to the same extent as the participants of the Event who purchased the admission ticket.
3. The Regulations are available on the websites: www.castlenights.pl, at the entrance to the Event area and on the ticket sales company's website (if the tickets were purchased online).
4. Entry to the Events is allowed for people over 12 years of age, except for Events specifically dedicated to children and adolescents up to 12 years of age, and events where the promoter explicitly allows the participation of people under 12 years of age. Persons from 12 to 16 years of age may enter the Organizer accompanied by an adult, and minors over 16 years of age with the written consent of their legal guardian. The promoter informs that it does not collect and process personal data contained in the written consents referred to above.
5. Participants have the right to enter and stay on the premises of the Event at times and places specified by the Event Promoter.
6. Before entering the premises of the Event, each participant of a ticketed Event should present a valid admission ticket or other document authorizing entry in the form specified by the Promoter. The Promoter has the right to refuse admission to the Event to persons without a valid and legible (also by scanning devices) ticket or other document authorizing the participation in the Event.
7. Each participant of the Event may be requested to present an identity document.
8. The purchased ticket should be treated as an individual consent given by the Promoter to its holder to the participation in the Event, which may be withdrawn at any time for reasons related to safety and order maintenance.
9. The ticket entitles you to enter the Event once. Leaving the Event area (crossing the ticket scanning line) is treated as a voluntary resignation from further participation in the Event, unless the Promoter or security services allow the possibility of leaving the Event area during the Event.
10. Each of the participants of the Event may be subject to security check. Refusal to submit to a security check results in a voluntary resignation from participation in the Event and the necessity to leave the Event area without the right to apply for a ticket refund.
11. It is forbidden to bring the following items to the area of the Events:
 - a) weapons of all kinds (including melee weapons, knives, daggers, brass knuckles, etc.),
 - b) any sharp objects such as knives, razors, razor blades or umbrellas with a spike,

- c) explosives, pyrotechnics and flammable materials (this also applies to flags and banners made of materials that do not have the appropriate flame-retardant certificate),
 - d) narcotics and psychotropic drugs and substances,
 - e) chains, ropes, strings, etc., longer than 20 centimeters,
 - f) radioactive, corrosive, irritating, chemical or biological substances (including pepper gas, etc.),

 - j) heavy and hard objects that can be used as projectiles (e.g. cosmetics in glass or metal packaging, empty bottles, etc.),
 - k) cameras and audio / video recording equipment with the exception of mobile phones and compact cameras with optical zoom up to 10x (unless the Promoter of the Event grants permission for it),
 - l) drinks and food.
12. The Promoter does not deposit items that are prohibited to bring and possess during the Event.
 13. It is forbidden to bring animals to the area of the Event.
 14. It is forbidden to bring bicycles to the area of the Event and leave them on the area of the Event outside the designated places, if available.
 15. For safety reasons, it is unacceptable to stay on the area of the Event with backpacks, suitcases, bags, etc. with a format larger than A3, and other items that may affect the comfort or safety of the event participants. These items should be left in the cloakroom, if available, upon the request of the security services.
 16. In the event of finding any of the above-mentioned items or any other item the bringing of which to the area of the Event may pose a threat to security, violation of public order and / or is prohibited by law, the Promoter of the Event and security services have the right to refuse the owner of such an item entry to the Event or may request them to leave the Event. If that person fails to comply with this order, they may be removed from the area of the Event without the right to a ticket refund.
 17. The Promoter of the Event has the right to refuse entry to the Event or remove from its area people who are intoxicated, aggressive, provoking aggression, not respecting the safety rules and regulations or otherwise threatening their own safety, the safety of other participants of the Event, as well as the safety of artists, Event staff or the security of the Event. In this case, no ticket refund applies.
 18. The final decision regarding refusal to enter the Event or removal of a participant from the Event venue lies with the Promoter. In this case, the participant has the right to demand a justification for such a decision.
 19. There is a total ban on smoking in closed rooms at the Event area (also applies to the so-called electronic cigarettes).
 20. It is forbidden to destroy information boards, litter bins, benches and any other items and property, as well as to move devices and property located in the area of the Event without the consent of the Promoter or the staff.
 21. It is forbidden to raise shouts that provoke or incite to disturb the order and security, that may constitute a source of conflict, that are offensive or degrading other people because of their sex, race, religion, age, views or for any other reason.

22. It is forbidden to block in any way the exits and escape routes, access roads for rescue services, hydrants and other devices necessary in the event of a rescue or firefighting operation.
23. Any participant of the Event is obliged to inform the Promoter or the security service about a noticed fire, as well as threat to life, human health or property.
24. The Promoter of the Event is not responsible for the property left unattended on the premises of the Event.
25. Any participant of the Event is obliged to follow the recommendations of the Organizers's employees, the Promoter and the security service.
26. The Promoter of the Event, following the provisions of these Regulations, acts through the employees of the security service, which are entrusted with the duties of ensuring safety and order during the Event, and through other persons employed by the Promoter to work during the Event.
27. In the case of a breach of the provisions of these Regulations in a manner that may endanger the safety of people and property and / or violation of the law, it is permissible to use direct coercion measures to apprehend, arrest and transfer the violating person to law enforcement authorities or remove them from the event area. Security service employees who are security guards are entitled to use measures of direct coercion on the principles set out in art. 38 of the Act of August 22, 1997 on the protection of persons and property.
28. The Promoter of the Event is obliged to inform the relevant services about detected violations of the law.
29. All vehicles parked on the premises of the Event before the Event and during the Event without the appropriate entry and parking pass will be towed to the parking lot at the expense of the owner of the vehicle.
30. The Promoter is not responsible for the content and form of the artistic message presented during the Events.
31. Any person taking part in the Event understands and accepts the fact that they may be exposed to constant noise that may damage hearing, and to strong light stimuli. People suffering from migraines and other diseases, the symptoms of which may worsen under the influence of these stimuli (e.g. epilepsy), participate in the Event at their own risk and cannot make any claims against the promoter.
32. By taking part in the Event, the participant agrees to the recording of his image by accredited photographers or camera operators in connection with participation in a public event. The participant agrees that the Promoter may use the image recorded in connection with the implementation of the Event to the extent unlimited in time and territory, and use the participant's image (photos, videograms, audiovisual materials, audio materials) recorded in connection with the Event. The Promoter is obliged to ensure that the use of the image will not harm the personal rights of the person / persons whose image was recorded during the Event.
33. A person that fails to comply with any security order issued on the basis of the Act, the rules of the facility (area) or the mass event regulations issued by the security services or information services, shall be subject to the penalty of restriction of liberty or a fine of not less than PLN 2,000.
